

Expectations and Privileges

We have the following expectations of learners in our class:

- Be respectful
- Own your learning
- Manage yourself
- Do your best

If we consistently meet these expectations, we will enjoy the following privileges:

1. Right to enter the room when the teacher is not present to continue work.
2. Right to free seating.
3. Right to responsibly control the noise level at your table.
4. Right to manage small breaks from the classroom.
5. Right to listen to non-distracting music with headphones/earbuds.
6. Right to eat a healthy, non-messy snack in class.
7. Right to manage learning schedule of when you complete set tasks.
8. Right to work responsibility outside the room without disturbing other classes.
9. Right to have a Genius Hour after every second week, if you are on track with your projects.

If we do not meet the class expectations, these privileges will be removed for the rest of the week and be reinstated the following Monday.
